Youth Achievement Program Guidelines and Application 2013

What is the Purpose of the Youth Achievement Program?

The purpose of the Youth Achievement Program is to provide access to financial support designed to provide youth members of Serpent River First Nation with opportunities in:

- Sports and Recreation
- Culture and Language
- Arts
- Academic
- Life Skills
- Community Representation

Through this program the First Nation recognizes and encourages youth achievement. Assisting youth participate in activities and initiatives within and outside of the Traditional territory of SRFN is paramount.

Assistance from this program will bring about many life-lasting and positive experiences and in turn, will create positive minded youth.

The Program is open to youth who is part of the Serpent River First Nation community, aged 18 and under. The youth beneficiary of the fund may be a non-registered member, but must be a family member of a Registered Status Indian of the SRFN.
